- 25X1X 1. A small resistance group is operating in the hills around the village of Lopyan (42 52N - 24 05E) and the city of Etropole (42 50N - 23 59E) in the Teteven region of Bulgaria. Although most of the men in this group are not natives of the area, a few local peasants have taken charge of supplying the group with food, which they collect from sympathetic peasants in the area. A small military detachment under the command of a certain Minkovski, equipped with trucks and small arms, recently arrived in the city of Teteven with orders to wipe out this resistance group.
2. Another resistance group is operating in the Kotlenska Planina (42 54N - 26 24E), having arrived during April and May 1951 from their former area of operation in the Slivenska Planina (42 45N - 26 20E). This group was forced to change its location because it was being pursued by a military detachment from Sliven (42 40N - 26 19E) under the leadership of a certain Majski, a deputy from Nova Zagora.
